

Originally the Yuansing or Yanzih Temple, after numerous relocations it was eventually moved to its present location on the mountain and renamed Yuanheng. The temple is dedicated to the deity Bodhisattva Guanyin, and exhibits stately and elegant architecture. The platform in front of the temple offers excellent views of the entire city. It is particularly scenic at sunrise and sunset.