

The Cijin Seaside Park was constructed by the Kaohsiung City Government to reflect the unique geological features of Cijin District. The park has numerous walk ways criss-crossing through sections such as a bathing beach, a seascape viewing path, a cross-country area and a natural ecology area, displaying a multitude of recreational and sightseeing functions.